BADGE BEATEN BY DEFAULTER IN THE NEWARK STAKES AT MONMOUTH. With Mrs. Langtry at the post to see them started it is not surprising that the youngsters in the Scabright Stakes should make one of the most exfin shes of the Monmouth Park meeting. Colts fillies and jockeys were on their best behavior and all did their utmost to win. Miss Cody, apparently beaten at the head of the homestretch, railled under high pressure, and joining Ransom and the Cyclone celt caused both to extend themselves. The issue was in doubt to the last stride. First one nose was in front, then another, and the alternation was so rapid that the eye could scarcely follow it. At the furlong post the Cyclone colt seemed to falter. He was tightly sandwiched between his troublesome antagonists and Littlefield could not use his whip to ad-While attempting to drive his mount he was in reality driving Ransom, while Miss Cody, on the rail, occasionally felt the cracker of his whip. It nose over the line in front of Miss Cody, who bear Ransom a short neck. In the struggle the Cyclone colt's bridle slipped, which probably accounts for the Brookdale bore off the two-year-old honors of the day, the Chamo's filly winning the race for maidens with surpassing ease, beating Khaftan, the "good thing" without effort. The field was a wretched one, if is true, but the filly will be dangerous in much Mr. Withers honored her with a name as a reward of merit, and she will bereafter cannot be denied that there was a good deal of floundering in three saddles, for these lightweights cannot ride and whip with ease or grace. But at last Littlefield's whip chanced to stray in the direction of the Cyclone colt's steaming flank, and at the touch the youngster responded promptly and gamely, getting his appear on the programme as Chemise-all black. Swift was withdrawn from the first race, Fitzroy was short of work, Choctaw doesn't like a mile and a sixteenth, Joe Lee was out of his class, Telle Doe was not fit. Valiant was too slow, Cambyses was poorly andled and Eltzpatrick couldn't ride at 106 pounds.

Firenzi had nothing to trouble her, and, superbly ridden by Garrison, won the fourth race in impressive style, the fluish with Connemara being drawn fine to please the galler. This great filly will meet The Bard in the Freehold Stakes to-morrow. It was reported at the track that Kingston would be shipped from Saratoga to take part in the race.

The public would have nothing but Badge in the Newark Stakes: A terrific plunge drove him to 4 to 5 in the books, while George Oyster and Cascade went begging at 6 to b. Lewis threw the race away. Badge could not have lost if he had not raced his legs off trying to run around George Oyster and Gascade with the sease of trying to run around George Oyster and get the rail from him. They struggled against each other for six furious and were still fighting it out when Defaulter slipped up and won.

McLaughlin, a 30 to 1 shot, won the selling affair, leading from end to end, and retribution overtook the insiders who planged on Luminary.

The steeplechase was a gift to Westmoreland, who is running in fine form just now. Few hookmakers cared to lay against him. Chanticleer fell, Bobstay threw his jockey, and Jim Murphy bolted. The race looked honest enough from the outside, but the jockeys were so placed as to puzzle the public. 'Follow the money' is now a good rule in playing steeplechases. The ring bas grown so large that the intended winger is always made the favorite.

The racing was good throughout and thousands enjoyed it. Details are given below:

KINGSTON AN EASY WINNER.

TERRA COTTA AND ELKWOOD QUICKLY DIS-POSED OF AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, July 31 (Special).—Several races since the Suburban was run have demonstrated that the victory of Elkwood was a fluke of a most pronounced character. Those who entertained a doubt to the contrary probably had it removed to day by the race for the Excelsior Stakes, had it removed to day by the race for the Excelsior Stakes, which settled the claims of Elkwood to the exalted position in which a Suburban victory placed him. The race, from which much was expected, was something of a disappointment, although it was pretty enough to look at Covington received instructions to make a stiff pace, and covington received instructions to make a sur pace, and he sent Terra Cotta to the front as soon as the flag fell, and although the track was good he could not make the pace fast enough to worry Kingston, who waited behind Elkwood until well inside the last furlong, when the Laughlin began riding. While his competitors were being Laughlin began riding. While his competitors were being punished, and without even raising his whip, "Jimmy" brought Kingston home an easy winner by a neck, which could have been a full length had it been desired. The time—2:10%—was a great disappointment to the crowd. The pace was moderate throughout, with the quarter in 0:20, the half in 0:53, the three-quarters in 1:18, and the 0:26, the half in 0:53, the three-quarters in 1:18, and the mile in 1.45. Mr. Gratz and his friends lost a large sum of menes, as they persisted in overrating Elikwood, and the picnic they proposed having has been postponed indefinitely. Terra Cotta's running was also a sore diappointment to the Western division, which plunged heroically on their colt's ability to wear down Kingston with a flight of speed, which he certainly did not possess took and good time was made. Drumstick, who had been soid to "Bill" Brien this morning for $000, was entered in the selling race for $000 and won, and was bid up to $1,300, and both the owner of the second horse and the association did well in dividing a surplus of $700.

Mand S. The peerless chestnut mare is built something after the fashion of the old-time street-cars of this city, which were never so full but that there was room for one more passenger to hang on. The Queen of the Turf has often astonished her admirers by surpassing her own best time. Her latest feat was on Monday, when on the Fleetwood track, driven by John Murphy, she made the mile course in 2:12 3-4. equal to the best time ever made in Fleetwood by any other trotter. To be sure the great mare had on the previous Monday made the mile on the same track in 2:12 1-2, but the wonderful part of the last trial was the fact that in obedience to instructions Murphy eased her in coming up the hill so that her speed was perceptibly checked. Had she been pushed there is no doubt about her ability, at the terrific rate she wa going, to have done the mile several points quicker than 2:12 1-2 and beaten her own record. The track having been circled the first time in 2:14 1-4. After the day's feat Mr. Bonner climbed into the seat of a light top-buggy and took the ribbons in his hands and sped back to the city, the proud owner of the most wonderful piece of animal mechanism on earth. Her time by quarters in the two miles had been as fel-

"The Fleetwood record of Maud S.," said Mr. Bonner, "before I bought her from Mr. Vanderbilt was 2:13, and her fast-track record, made at Cleveland, was 2:09:3-4. Since then she has done a second better for me, also at Cleveland, three years ago. She is a trille fat yet and has only been driven five times to a sulky this season. She may break her own record before the season is over, but I haven't decided yet what I am going to do with her."

JUBILATION IN LOCAL BASEBALL CIRCLES-WASHINGTON BADLY BEATEN.

The friends of the New-York club were jubilant last night over the fact that their favorite players had at last secured the lead in the League pennant race. This is the first time in the history of the local nine when the team has held the lead at this time of the year or after the race was fairly under way. The local nine has been playing in splendid form for the last six weeks and has steadily fought its way up from fourth position. Yesterday's vic tory over Washington and Detroit's defeat place the nine in a position which the friends of the club have long hoped to see it occupy.

Manager Mutrie and several of the New-York players were seen tast night, and a happier lot of men it would be hard to find. They say that the other clubs will have a hard time of it in dislodging them. "Why, before we start on the next trip West," said one of the players, "we will have such a lead that the other teams will be contesting for minor positions only."

troit and Chicago clubs appear weak, in the pitching department. The Boston and Philadelphia clubs are too far behind at present to be considered in the race. The League and Association records to date are as follows:

Ward and Gore. Daniels, the umptre, again acted peculiarly, and a rumor was rife that James Owen O'Connor had abandoned tragedy for umpiring. Certainly the latter never acted sillier than Daniels did yesterday. If President Young has any regard for the feelings of the local followers of the game, he will send another order at times. The visiting men got only one run, and that one was made through comical blunders by umpire along at once. Welch pitched with patience and skill and showe excellent command of the ball. The visiting players made three hits and seemed thankful for small favors. The local players discarded their black uniforms, re taining only their sable stockings.

The New-York men scored three uncarned runs in the fourth inning and took the lead. After Tiernan had been put out Connor was struck by a pitched ball and went to first. O'Rourke got to first on a wild throw by Donnelly. Connor started for the home plate. He would have been thrown out, but O'Brien sent the ball far over the catcher's head, and Connor scored and O'Rourke ran to second. Whitney made a hit, and as Wilmot struck O'Rourke in th back on the throw-in, O'Rourke scored and Whitney got around to third. Wilmot made a splendid catch of Ewing's long-line hit to left field, and Whitney

Poor plays by Ward and Gore allowed the Washington nine to score a run in the last half of the fourth inning. Ward fumbled Hoy's grounder and the batter got to third on an error by Gore. He scored on a hit by Daily. The local players added one more run to their score in the sixth inning. Connor went to first on called balls and to third on a two base hit by O'Rourke. He scored on Ewing's sacri fice out at first. The New-York players added two more runs to their score in the seventh inning, carning both of them. After two men were out Ward made a three-bagger to right field and scored on a hit by Tiernan. The latter stole to second and scored on a two-base hit over to the right field picket fence by Connor. The score was:
